“Getting new international operation up and running in a fast growing environment such as the Romanian one can be seen as difficult or risky.

Whether the company is already running extensive international operations, making its first overseas acquisition, or simply opening an office in a new market, timely and rigorous advices are vital.

At Grant Thornton Romania, we endeavour to develop dynamism, reactivity and appropriate procedures that guarantee that we provide the right services and on time. We are strongly committed to the success of our clients, our people and our profession. Our strength is that our clients receive seamless and high-quality services, built on a profound understanding of the client’s business. At Grant Thornton Romania we work on finding the right mix of general and specific qualification for the teams 'engaged' for our clients, ensuring that they possess the right industry expertise and the appropriate interdisciplinary knowledge. Aligning all those components in an efficient manner contributes to the client success and to the firm’s reputation.”

Who we are

Grant Thornton Romania was established in 2010 to assist clients in meeting the significant challenges and opportunities offered by the developing Romanian economic sector. We focus on the provision of assurance, advisory and tax services.

Where we are

Grant Thornton Romania delivers high quality services through highly qualified professional staff. Our office is located in Bucharest.

How we work

At Grant Thornton Romania we approach all assignments by combining excellent consultancy services with dedicated professional staff with experience both at local and international level.

We offer integrated solutions that meet the needs of foreign investors in Romania, and a quality multidisciplinary practice that optimises foreign investors' access to the Romanian market by combining the strengths of local staff having a good understanding and knowledge of the local legal and cultural environment with that of our foreign staff with their strong understanding of clients' expectations in a developing market.

Why Grant Thornton

Grant Thornton Romania provides a wide range of Audit and Assurance services to private, public and international companies across various sectors. Our multi-disciplinary advisory department has an extensive local experience, deep knowledge of various sectors to provide robust, independent and professional advice. Our tax team has the know-how to advise on the overall tax exposure and to guide through the complexities of the Romanian tax systems. Grant Thornton Romania is growing a strong Outsourcing department, offering externalization of accounting, payroll and tax compliance functions, from small and mid-size companies to large multinational corporations from various sectors.
